Meadows Bank Supports Meals on Wheels, a Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada program in Honor of 10 Year Anniversary

Las Vegas, Nevada, May 25, 2018– In celebration of its 10 year anniversary, Meadows Bank, a full-service community bank headquartered in Las Vegas, Nevada is giving back to the community through a matching donation program to Meals on Wheels, a Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada program. Throughout the month of April, Meadows Bank received donations from shareholders, clients, partners and employees and wrote a matching check for all donations collected.

“Las Vegas has become an economically strong and vibrant city, allowing our clients and their businesses to grow and prosper,” said William Bullard, chairman of Meadows Bank. He added, “We are proud to be able to give back to this community that has helped get us to where we are today.”

“We are honored to give back to the community that has supported us through the past ten years and look forward to serving our community for the next ten,” said Arvind Menon, president and chief executive officer of Meadows Bank.

Meadows Bank presented a check to Deacon Tom Roberts, president & chief executive officer of Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada for the Meals on Wheels Program at a celebratory event on Wednesday, May 23, 2018.

“The Meals on Wheels program is so important in our community, allowing seniors to remain at home and out of hospitals and nursing homes,” said Jim King, Meadows Bank board member, director at R&R Partners, and chairman of the R&R Partners Foundation.

The Meals on Wheels program provides a daily meal (often times the only meal) to over 2,100 qualifying low-income and housebound seniors (and their pets) in Southern Nevada. And 800 more seniors are on the waiting list to receive meals.
