Alex Shaffer Joins Meadows Bank As Regional President in Arizona

Las Vegas, Nevada, July 26, 2018 – Meadows Bank announced that Alex Shaffer recently joined Meadows Bank as the Regional President in Arizona. Alex is an 18 year veteran of commercial banking in Phoenix, AZ; Tucson, AZ; Las Vegas, NV and Sacramento, CA markets.

Alex joins us most recently from US Bank in Phoenix, Arizona where he was Vice President, Relationship Manager for Emerging Business. He was the highest producing Emerging Business Relationship Manager for all of US Bank in 2017. Prior to that Alex held various commercial lending positions at First Community Bank, Bank of the Southwest and Comerica Bank.

“The business owners and entrepreneurs that I have the privilege of partnering with make my job exciting and new each day,” said Alex. He added, “I look forward to working with this dynamic commercial banking team in Phoenix and partnering with local businesses to become their trusted financial advisor.”

Alex has a deep desire to help businesses and owners achieve their short and long term goals, through promoting, developing and managing innovative credit and banking solutions. Using a consultative approach and focusing on long lasting and expanding relationships, he has developed a strong understanding of a variety of industries including, but not limited to; commercial real estate, construction, manufacturing, and automotive.

“Alex’s familiarity in the Phoenix commercial banking market, along with his notable accomplishments over his 18 years, will be a tremendous asset to Meadows Bank and our desire to help our customers thrive and grow,” said Arvind Menon, president and chief executive officer of Meadows Bank.

Alex also proudly serves on the advisory board of LISC, Arizona, a leading community development organization.
